 650.5 v. 6

Index of Feature Articles in "Sales Management"

Volume VI

Page

ADVERTISING AGENCY RELATIONS

I Beg Your Pardon, Mr. King—But ... 35
By Cheltenham Bold

The Free Circulation Controversy Breaks Out Anew (Editorial) ... 109

Has the Advertising Business Anything to Conceal?... 131
By Cheltenham Bold

Who Is to Blame—Advertising Agents or Sales Managers? ... 149
By Charles W. Hoyt, Pres., Hoyt's Service, Inc., New York City

What Rate Cards and Circulation Statements Fail to Show ... 397
By Cheltenham Bold

The Origin and Development of the Advertising Agency—I ... 419
By Daniel A. Ruebel, Vice-Pres., The Chappelow Advertising Co.

The Fussy Client Who Insists on "Touching Up" the Copy ... 507
By Cheltenham Bold

What Many Critics of Advertising Fail to Understand ... 639
By Cheltenham Bold

The Origin and Development of the Advertising Agency—II ... 667
By Daniel A. Ruebel, Vice-Pres., The Chappelow Advertising Co.

The Origin and Development of the Advertising Agency—III ... 935
By Daniel A. Ruebel, Vice-Pres., The Chappelow Advertising Co.

ADVERTISING

Mr. Borsodi Amuses Himself With Pot Shots At Advertising ... 63
By Philip S. Salisbury, Vice-Pres., The Dartnell Corporation, New York City

The Reason Ford Is Advertising (Editorial) ... 109

When Silence Ceases to Be a Virtue (Editorial) ... 234

Mr. Edison's Latest Interview (Editorial) ... 235

Sales Managers Honored by Association of National Advertisers ... 260

The Passion for Inquiries ... 265
By Cheltenham Bold

How We Made Our Business Worth Advertising ... 285
By Northam Warren, Pres., The Northam Warren Corporation, New York City

The New York Advertising Show Disappoints (Editorial) ... 350

Mr. Norvell's Fuss With Mr. Plumb (Editorial) ... 351

Saunders Norvell Defines His Stand on National Advertising ... 379

How American Radiator Picked 600 Newspapers for Sales Drive ... 428
By James M. Mosely

New York University Investigates Failures Among Advertisers ... 471

How This Magazine Feels About the National Advertising Issue (Editorial) ... 483

Page

How We "Cash In" on Our Newspaper Advertising ... 549
By Thomas J. Grace, Sales Mgr., Gorton-Pew Fisheries, Gloucester, Mass.

Four Changes That Increased Returns 700 Per Cent ... 590
By Ralph K. Wadsworth

Where Are the Advertising Managers of Yesterday? (Editorial) ... 603

What One Hundred Concerns Spent for Advertising Last Year ... 633
(Results of a Dartnell Investigation)

Trade Swing to County Seats Makes Advertising Possible ... 661
By J. W. Harris, Pres., Harris-Polk Hat Co., St. Louis

"I Buy Character Not Circulation" (Editorial) ... 726

What Is a Fair Average Salary for An Advertising Manager? ... 781
(A letter to the Editor from P. L. Thomson, president, Association of Nat'l Advertisers)

Some Light on the Hazy Subject of "Thin" Circulation ... 787
By Cheltenham Bold

How Our Advertising Is Creating a New Market for Chain ... 815
By Charles M. Luthy, Sales Mgr., Chain Products Co., Cleveland

Some Comments on Pollyanna Advertising Illustration ... 817
By A Bored Reader

Advertising That Does the Work of Junior Salesmen ... 865
By Norman Lewis

The Moral Importance of the Bathroom ... 914
By Bruce Frary

Will the Present Crusade Strengthen Outdoor Advertising? ... 923
By Cheltenham Bold

Wants to Pick a Fight With Mr. "Bold" ... 949
By Gridley Adams

An Advertiser Wants Advertising Taxed (Editorial) 1008

The Influence of Position on Results From Magazine Ads (Editorial) ... 1009

Are Advertising Stunts As Good As They Look? ... 1071
By Cheltenham Bold

Advertising Displaces Free Deals in Iodent Campaigns ... 1087
By A. J. Lauttmann, Pres., Iodent Chemical Co., Detroit

This Book Lifted Our Advertising Out of the Rut ... 1097
By Bernard Douglas, Genl. Mgr., A. Bourjois & Co., New York

Agency Reports Show Big Gain in Advertising for 1924 ... 1109
(A portion of an Address by James O'Shaughnessy)

CAMPAIGNS—SALES

Five New Accounts Per Salesman ... 161
By Roland Cole

A Plan That Sold a Month's Quota in Two Weeks ... 308
By H. S. Westerfield, Genl. Sales Mgr., Livingston Editing Co., Chicago

Page

Sales Pageant Helps Ingersoll Break Into Boston 321
Four Million Sales in Thirty Days 393
By Eugene Whitmore
Two Membership Drives That Brought in $142,000 404
Unearthed An Idea Thirty Years Old to Increase Our 1923 Sales 509
By Abner E. Larned, Pres., Larned, Carter & Co., Detroit
Why We Sidetracked Precedent in Our Spring Sales Program 791
By J. B. Wright, Director of Sales, Earl & Wilson, Troy, N. Y.
The Rickenbacker Plan for Breaking Into New Territory 919
By Capt. E. V. Rickenbacker, Vice-Pres., Rickenbacker Motor Co., Detroit

COMPENSATION OF SALESMEN

How We Devised a Bonus Plan That Went Over Big With Our Salesmen 15
By S. E. Judd, Sales Mgr., Mint Products Co., Inc., Port Chester, N. Y.
How We Found a Better Way to Pay Our Salesmen 127
By Edward V. Waldvogel, Vice-Pres., Yale & Towne Mfg. Co.
The Salesman Who Has Reached Limit of His Earning Capacity 266
By H. S. Barnes, The John Price Jones Corp., New York City
Selling the Commission Idea to Salaried Salesmen 306
By J. W. O'Harrow, Jr.
Problems Which Kept Three of Our Readers Awake Last Month 587
When Salesmen Have Unearned Drawing Accounts 784
A Nefarious Practice That Should Be Stopped (Editorial) 871
Why I Don't Believe in the Straight Commission System 974
By William L. Fletcher

CONTESTS AND QUOTAS—SALES

Salesmen Bury "Old Man Quota" in Exciting Contest 318
An Open Letter to Thomas Hobbes, Esq. 521
By P. S. Salisbury, Vice-Pres., The Dartnell Corporation
Our Experience With Quotas 637
By Joseph Ewing, Genl. Sales Mgr., Phillips-Jones Corp., New York City
When Your Sales Contests Begin to Lose Their Kick 927
By Roland Cole

DEVELOPING SALESMEN AND EXECUTIVES

Could Sales Managers' Clubs Foster Schools for Salesmen? 165
By a member of the Dartnell Editorial Staff
Salesmen Who Are Muscle-Bound At Thirty-Five 276
By David H. Colcord
The Seven Ages of Salesmen 381
What We Do With Salesmen Who Have Gone As Far As They Can 417
By F. H. Dickinson, Sales Mgr., Tide Water Oil Co., New York

Page

Lack of Training Blamed for Failure of Salesmen 431
By J. V. E. Westfall, Vice-Pres., Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York
Show Libby Salesmen How Branch Managers Are Selected 517
Mock Conference of Sales Managers Proves More Effective Than "Preaching"
The Salesman Who Can't Stand Criticism 548
The Self-Sufficient Salesman Who Skims Over His Mail 654
Habit and the Salesman 773
By Royal Mede
The Salesman Who Fritters Away His Time With Sidelines 913
The Sales Manager Who Builds An Organization That Endures 977
By R. R. Deupree, Genl. Sales Mgr., Procter & Gamble Distributing Co.
The Problem of the Old Salesmen (Editorial) 1008
Salesmen Who Learned to Run Their Own Sales Department 1067
By J. S. Conroy, Genl. Mgr., Autocar Sales & Service Co., Chicago
He Taught Salesmen the Knack of Helping Customers Pay Up 1100

ECONOMICS—SALES

Lower Prices on the Horizon (Editorial) 108
Doing One Thing and Doing It Well (Editorial) 108
Fuller Holds House-to-House Selling Does Not Cut Costs 168
Coordination of Departmental Expense in the Sales Budget 259
By W. W. Kincaid, Pres., The Spirella Co., Inc., Niagara Falls, N. Y.
The Tendency to Merge Selling Organizations (Editorial) 602
Too Much Loose Talk About Turnover (Editorial) 603
Calls and Profits 657
By Eugene Whitmore
The Significance of the March Failures (Editorial) 1009
Measuring Up to the 1919 Ambition (Editorial) 1157

EXPORT ARTICLES

British Sales Possibilities—Today and Tomorrow 383
By Philip S. Salisbury, Vice-Pres., The Dartnell Corporation
A Million Calls for Information on Foreign Trade 415
By Waldon Fawcett
Idle Equipment Means High Overhead (Editorial) 482
The British Elections and Distribution Costs (Editorial) 603
Why We Are a Bull on the British Market (Editorial) 727
British Departmental Stores As An Outlet for American Goods 749
By Samson Clark
Pitfalls of English Law for American Sales Managers 751
By Leslie Pocock, Solicitor of the British Supreme Court of Judicature

Page

The Place of the British Advertising Agent in Your British Campaign ... 756
By John E. Walsh, Special Representative in Europe for The Dartnell Corporation

The Men Who Are Helping You to Build Up Overseas Trade ... 803
By Waldon Fawcett

American Interest in Britain's Effort to Restore European Stability (Editorial) ... 870

Our Experience Selling Eversharp Pencils in England ... 889
By C. A. Frary, Genl. Mgr., The Wahl Co.

The British Retailer and His Point of View ... 891
By Max Rittenberg

What's Ahead for the Pound Sterling? ... 896
By F. Cecil McBride

Holds United Kingdom and South Africa Best Markets ... 899

Financing a British Branch or Subsidiary ... 900

Shall We Tackle Mexico? ... 939
By Ruel McDaniel

Breaking Into the British Market ... 1029
By W. G. Clifford

How John Mackintosh Built the Largest Business of Its Kind in England ... 1034
By a member of the Dartnell Editorial Staff

Empire Exhibition Reveals Magnitude of British Market ... 1037

Selecting the Salesmen for Your British Campaign ... 1041
By Stanley F. Talbot, Hon. Secretary, Incorporated Sales Mgrs. Assn., of the United Kingdom

The Cost of Selling in England and in America (Editorial) ... 1156

You Never Know Until You Try (Editorial) ... 1156

What Giving Away Knowledge Has Done for American Industry (Editorial) ... 1157

To Be Well Known Is Not Enough (Editorial) ... 1157

Products That Should Go Well in England This Year 1177
By J. C. Aspley, Pres., The Dartnell Corporation, Chicago

Opportunities for American Specialties in the British Market ... 1179
By Douglas Miller, Chief of Western European Div., U. S. Department of Commerce

Are Sales Managers Blind to Canadian Sales Opportunities? ... 1182
By Roy W. Johnson

Opening for American Goods in India ... 1190
By W. T. Day, London Manager, "The Pioneer Press of India"

GENERAL

The "Own Your Own Business" Bug ... 17
By David H. Colcord

Selling to Institutions ... 59
By John M. Garth

SALES MANAGEMENT Begins Its Sixth Year in Larger Quarters ... 85

The Sales Manager's Book Shelf ... 107

The Sales Manager's Responsibility for Unemployment (Editorial) ... 108

Page

Sales Executives Meet to Discuss Distribution ... 202

Has the Department Store Merchandising Man Outlived His Usefulness? ... 261
By Eugene Whitmore

Con—(*Con*ference—*Con*versation—*Con*ceit) ... 263
A Tragi-Comedy in Three Acts by Philip S. Salisbury, Vice-Pres., The Dartnell Corporation, New York City

When Your Audience Begins to Yawn ... 273
By Benjamin Bills, Sales Mgr., American Bond & Mortgage Co., Chicago

Cleveland Auto Men Grapple With Used Car Problem ... 313

Why We Need More Sales Managers' Clubs (Editorial) ... 351

Frankly—Is This Stuff Worth Two Columns? ... 407

The Presidential Year and Your Salesmen's Morale (Editorial) ... 482

Discourage Gossip If You Would Encourage Loyalty (Editorial) ... 482

The Growing Demand for Speakers Who Say Something (Editorial) ... 483

Buyers Confirm Charges Against the Merchandising Men ... 562
By Eugene Whitmore

Popular Sales Fallacies ... 574
By Roy B. Simpson, Pres., Simpson Advertising Service

"Begin It and the Work Will Be Completed" (Editorial) ... 602

Some Inscriptions on Tombstones in Our Salesmen's Graveyard ... 631
By a Former Delinquent

Labor As a Factor in Selling ... 647
By Prof. Paul D. Converse, University of Pittsburgh

Turning Public Opinion Your Way ... 648
A review of a new book by Edward L. Bernays

The Receiver on the "Windy-Willies" of Business ... 695
By John P. Wilder

The Merger of the National Association of Sales Managers (Editorial) ... 726

On Fitting the Business to the Principle (Editorial) 727

Early Optimistic Reports Justified By Volume of New Building ... 795

She Found a Fortune in a Business the Experts Overlooked ... 809
By Eugene Whitmore

Meet in Chicago Brings Sales Executives from Many Cities ... 916

What Will College Give Your Son? ... 931
By Philip S. Salisbury, Vice-Pres., The Dartnell Corporation, New York City

The Salesman Who Entertains Old Man Gloom ... 957

Trade Associations Urged to Combat Cancellation Evil ... 962
By Gilbert H. Montague, Member of the New York Bar

Overdoing the Optimism Stuff (Editorial) ... 1009

Is the Farmer a Martyr—Or a Pirate? ... 1059

Business Development of the Month ... 1118

Page

HIRING AND FIRING SALESMEN

Are Letters of Recommendation Really Worth Anything? 9
By a New York Sales Manager

A Character Analyst Takes a Whirl At the Photographs 25
By Eugene Whitmore

Winning Answer to August Problem 31
By Amos E. Redding, Field Supervisor, Aetna Life Insurance Co.

Sales Executives Criticize Reports of the Character Analysts 153
By Eugene Whitmore

If You Need Salesmen Who Think and Stick 189
By Chas. W. Alexander, Bird & Son, East Walpole, Mass.

When You Need Salesmen in a Hurry 205

Hire Your 1924 Salesmen Before January First (Editorial) 234

When I'm on the Fence About Hiring a Salesman 375
By George W. Hopkins, Vice-Pres., Columbia Graphophone Co., New York; Chas. A. Dostal, Dist. Mgr., Westinghouse Lamp Co., Chicago; C. W. Love, Halsey, Stuart & Co., Chicago

Using the Sales Contest to Recruit New Men 426

Why I Am Against Hiring Salesmen Away From Competitors 635
By A. W. Fischer, Genl. Sales Mgr., Birtman Electric Co., Chicago

Business Fakirs—I 777
By David H. Colcord

Recruiting a National Sales Force in Ninety Days 1075
By H. E. Steiner, Genl. Sales Mgr., Mills Novelty Co., Chicago

Business Fakirs—II 1091
By David H. Colcord

LEGISLATION—SALES

What They Are Doing For and To You in Washington 157
By Waldon Fawcett

Washington Solons Dust Off Perennial Advertising Tax Bills 269
By Waldon Fawcett

They Are Fixing Your Next Year's Salary in Washington (Editorial) 350

When Official Washington Rubs Elbows With Sales Interests 523
By Waldon Fawcett

Congress Takes Its Regular Fling At Sales Legislation 675

A Good Idea Gone Wrong (Editorial) 726

Sales Executives Show Luxury Taxes Hinder Selling 833
By the Dartnell Washington Correspondent

Why the Federal Trade Commission Is Feared and Distrusted 911
By Roy W. Johnson

LETTERS AND CORRESPONDENCE—SALES

Why I Am Not Very Keen About Filled-In Form Letters 13
By William A. Hersey

Page

Story-Style Sales Letters 183
By Maxwell Droke

Coaxing, Persuasive Sales Letters (Editorial) 234

Some Deciding Factors That Influence Direct Action From Sales Letters 283
From "Industrial Publishing" by Horace M. Swetland, Pres., United Publishers' Corp., New York

How We Test Our Mail Campaigns As We Go Along 389
By John C. Sweeney, International Correspondence Schools, Inc., Scranton, Pa.

Eight Letters You Can Use to Sell the Advertising Idea to a Sales Force 499
By Russell H. Strickland, Kewanee, Illinois

Saying "NO" and Making a Friend With the Same Letter 553
From "Industrial Publishing" by Horace M. Swetland, Pres., United Publishers' Corp., New York

Inquiry Follow-Ups That Pave the Way for Salesmen 822

Coaxing Letters for Stubborn Dollars 917
By Cameron McPherson

A Letter That Welded Our Advertising To Our Sales Plan 921
By Joseph Ewing, Genl. Sales Mgr., The Phillips-Jones Corp., New York

When You Run Out of Sales Letter Ideas 966
By Maxwell Droke

Turndowns As Salesmen—II 1061
By Charles R. Wiers

Do You Write Letters That Sell or Just Answer Inquiries? 1069
By Donley D. Lukens

MANUALS—SALES

Why I Am Keen About the So-Called "Canned" Sales Talk 952
By J. R. MacPherson, Pres., The Hooven-Chicago Company

MEETINGS AND CONVENTIONS—SALES

Real Play Inoculates Salesmen With Resale Germ 21
Reported by E. D. Goodell

Charts That Saved a Convention From Talking Itself to Death 779
By Ruel McDaniel

ORGANIZATION OF SALES DEPARTMENT

How the Wheels Go 'Round in the Brunswick Sales Department 409
By A. J. Kendrick, Genl. Sales Mgr., Phonograph Div., Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co.

A Reader Wants to Know How to Organize 2,000 Salesmen 703

POLICY—SALES

Mr. Babson Starts Something 7
When He Advises Selling Foreign Goods Instead of Fighting Them

New Sales Policy of Joseph & Feiss Startles Clothing Trade 39

Page

Why Springfield Merchants Buy From One House Year After Year ... 279
By M. A. Holliday

When the House Outgrows Its Customers ... 289
By John P. Wilder

When Complaints Begin to Take the Place of Orders 401

The Receiver Comments On Training Men for Your Competitor's Benefit ... 441
By John P. Wilder

Why We Changed From the Branch Office Plan ... 449
By Harry A. May, Secy., Todd Protectograph Co., Rochester, N. Y.

The Salesman Who Complains About His Competitor's Prices (Editorial) ... 483

How We Got Away From Price Bickering in Selling 529
By Fayette R. Plumb, Pres., Fayette R. Plumb, Inc., Philadelphia

Why We Changed Over From "Flat" to "Quantity" Discounts ... 629
By John C. Wahl, Pres., The Wahl Company, Chicago

The Disgruntled Customer ... 771
By Chas. R. Wiers, Vice-Pres., The DeLong Hook & Eye Co.

Using the Strong Salesman to Help the Tail-Enders 776
By Carl E. Sommer, Vice-Pres., Majestic Mfg. Co.

Seven Hundred New Accounts From "Lame Duck" Orders ... 1065
An Interview by D. G. Baird with John S. McNeal, Sales Mgr., Lee & Cady, Detroit

PROMOTION—SALES

Are Salesmen's Advance Cards All That They Are Cracked Up to Be? ... 43
Opinions of Leading Sales Executives

How a Newcomer in a Crowded Field Sells 5,000 Pianos Yearly ... 49
By Walter C. Hepperla, Pres., Premier Grand Piano Corp.

Plan No. 12 for Following Up Inquiries ... 77
By Edward H. Schulze

Ten Things I Would Do to Help Dealers Were I a Sales Manager ... 99
An Interview by Roland Cole with John Blakely, Asst. Vice-Pres., United Cigar Stores Co. of America

The Receiver Comments on Sales Bulletins and Other Things ... 135
By John P. Wilder

Putting the Neglected Product on the Dealer's Shelf 169
By J. J. McAleese, Genl. Sales Mgr., Pittsburgh Provision & Packing Co.

Why Advertising Matter Is Not Mailed Ahead of Salesmen ... 178
By R. W. Kershaw, Michigan State Mgr., Investors Syndicate

Getting the Children On Your Side ... 295
Libby, McNeill & Libby Use Toy Store to Reach Mothers Through Children

Bigger Returns From What You Spend for Printed Matter—I ... 377
By David H. Colcord

Page

Putting a Kick in House Organs for Salesmen ... 501
By John M. Garth

Blotters, Flyers and Envelope Stuffers—II ... 595
By David H. Colcord

Does Sending Printed Matter Ahead of Salesmen Steal Their "Thunder"? ... 627

It Was the Kind of Product That Dealers Neglect ... 665

What to Expect From Direct Mail Advertising—III ... 687
By David H. Colcord

"Cut Yourself a Piece of Cake" ... 796
By D. G. Baird

Wahl Enlists Dealer Cooperation in Window Display Campaigns ... 838

Printed Matter That Capitalizes the Newspaper Habit—IV ... 841
By David H. Colcord

The Responsibility of Salesmen for Samples Entrusted to Them ... 857

Pictures That Put a Sales Hook in Printed Matter—V ... 947
By David H. Colcord

We Found a Better Way to Run Our Mailing Department ... 1095
By Carl Stone Crummett, American Mutual Liability Ins. Co., Boston

Taking Some of the Mystery Out of Buying Photo Engravings—VI ... 1106
By David H. Colcord

RELATIONS TO HOUSE—SALES MANAGER'S

How a Sales Manager Can Make Himself More Valuable to the Business ... 133
An Interview with Adrian D. Joyce, Pres., The Glidden Company

Why Sales Managers Often Stay Sales Managers (Editorial) ... 234

Should Sales Manager and Salesmen Own Stock in the Business? ... 255
By J. C. Aspley, Pres., The Dartnell Corporation, Chicago

Why Do Sales Managers Wallow About in Details? (Editorial) ... 350

A New Broom Sweeps Mean ... 385
By the Man Himself

Wanted—A Sales Manager Who Is Too Busy to Read 435

The Truth About the Salaries Paid to Sales Managers ... 497
Results of Investigation Among 250 Concerns

Wagers $50 That Writer of "A New Broom Sweeps Mean" Is All Wrong ... 503
By Allan Herrick of the United States National Bank, Denver

The Kind of Sales Manager Who Goes Over Big ... 505
By Roland Cole

The Optimistic Sales Manager and His Board of Directors ... 539
By George W. Hopkins, Vice-Pres., Columbia Graphophone Co., New York

Fine, Mr. Herrick, But You Don't Go Far Enough ... 651

The Mailed Fist Versus the Velvet Glove in Dealing With Men ... 807

What Does the Dartnell Study of Sales Salaries Prove? (Editorial) ... 870

Page

"Well, Murph, We Are Moving Today" (Editorial) ... 870
When Self-Admiration Comes Costly (Editorial) ... 871

SALES RESEARCH—TERRITORY ANALYSIS

Charts That Predict the Sales Slump—And Help Prevent It ... 53
By D. G. Baird
The Pacific Northwest—A Market That Welcomes New Products—Where People Buy Easily and Appreciate Quality ... 91
When and How to Cut a Territory ... 137
By a National Sales Manager
"Everybody in My Territory Has One" ... 141
An Interview with A. L. McCarthy, Vice-Pres., Eureka Vacuum Cleaner Co.
Here's Your Man, Mr. Mennen! ... 145
The Great Southwest—What Sales Managers Should Know About Texas and Oklahoma ... 217
Forecasts and Orders (Editorial) ... 235
How Paige "Spots" Its Active Market ... 297
By D. G. Baird
Washington—A Year-'Round Market ... 335
The Place of the Wisconsin Market in Your 1924 Sales Plans ... 457
By M. A. Holliday
What Kansas City Buys and How ... 581
How Is Business Going to Be in 1925? (Editorial) 602
How to Make Buffalo Buy ... 717
By Merril V. Reed
Tactics That Won In Cincinnati ... 851
What to Avoid in Staging a Sales Campaign in Atlanta ... 989
By a Member of the Dartnell Editorial Staff
Stepping Stones to Wider Distribution ... 1112
How I Learned to Find Hidden Sales Facts in Graphic Charts ... 1129
By Henry M. Roberts
Indiana's Place in Your Summer Sales Campaigns ... 1145
How Much Does Business Fall Off in the Summer? ... 1154

SALES TACTICS

Warming Up to the Buyer Who Just Sits and Lets You Talk ... 11
By John D. Rauch, Mgr. Factory Sales, Tokheim Oil Tank & Pump Co.
The Buyer Who Tries to "Kid" You Out of the Order 129
By John M. Garth
Sales Strategy That Won a Market for John Hancock Pens ... 173
By James M. Mosely
A New Approach Plan That Is Boosting Sales ... 229
Twenty Ways to Meet Price Objections ... 257
A Summary of Methods Used by Salesmen in Various Lines of Business

Page

How I Saved a $6,000 Order ... 453
By A. F. Burrows, Pres., Graham Bros. Soap Company, Chicago
The Salesman Who Says "Sign Here" and Gets Away With It ... 513
By Raymond J. Comyns, Alexander Hamilton Institute, New York City
His Bid Was $40 Higher But He "Nailed" the Order 571
By the Salesman Who "Nailed" It
The Biggest Thing in Selling—Making the Buyer Want It ... 643
By Maxwell Droke
Why Some Salesmen Never Worry About Competition ... 679
A Section from the New "Handbook of Sales Management," by Roland S. Hall
The Follow-Through in Selling ... 799
By Joseph A. Richards
Hand-to-Mouth Buying Brings Upheaval in Sales Tactics ... 943
By Eugene Whitmore
When the Buyer Thinks He Is "Loaded to the Guards" ... 1063
By Harry Van Demark
Selling the Talk-Weary Buyer ... 1083
By Maxwell Droke
Human Interest Sales Talks That Win When Cold Facts Fail ... 1084
By B. J. Williams, Director of Sales, The Paraffine Companies, San Francisco
Painted Lilies ... 1138
By Will G. Caldwell

TRADE-MARK AND GOOD-WILL PROTECTION

Gold Dust Proves An Anchor to Windward (Editorial) ... 109
Some Pitfalls to Avoid in Selecting a New Trade Name ... 970
By Will G. Caldwell
Packer's-Name-on-the-Label Policy Gains New Favor 1120

WORKING TERRITORY

Should Salesmen Be Equipped With Four-Wheel Brake Cars? ... 28
Salesmen's Interests Served By New Closed Car Models ... 328
Rearranging Salesmen's Routes in Detroit Doubles Sales ... 533
Balloon Tires for Salesmen's Cars ... 593
What Edson-Moore Learned From Cutting Territories ... 664
By D. G. Baird

Only one hundred and fifty bound volumes of "Sales Management," Volume VI, have been produced. They will be distributed as long as they last to those who request them, in the rotation in which orders are received, at the regular price of $6 each.

The Dartnell Corporation

Publishers to Sales Managers Special Reports Dartnell Monthly Sales Service
Manuals for Salesmen Surveys for the Sales Manager, etc.

1801 Leland Avenue, Chicago 19 West Forty-Fourth St., New York
150 Southampton Row, W.C.2, London